To: All Clergy, Religious and Lay Faithful
From: Diocesan Commission on Media and Communications
Re: Media Literacy Workshop for Parish Communicators

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Recognizing the crucial role of media and communications in the mission of evangelization, the Diocesan Commission on Media and Communications is organizing a Media Literacy Workshop for parish media teams and communicators. This formation seeks to enhance our capacity to responsibly and effectively share the Gospel in today's digital landscape. The sessions will cover essential topics such as:

- Commission Orientation and Diocesan Media Policy
- Workshops on Content Creation, News Writing, and Digital Technologies

The workshops will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and will be held by district on the following dates and locations:

- March 29, 2025 – 2nd District Vicariates | Saint Gregory the Great Cathedral, Legazpi City
- April 5, 2025 – 1st District Vicariates | Saint John the Baptist Parish, Tabaco City
- April 26, 2025 – 3rd District Vicariates | Saint Stephen Protomartyr Parish, Ligao City

I invite every parish to send five representatives, particularly those engaged in media and communications. This is vital for keeping our Gospel outreach grounded in truth, clarity, and responsible involvement.

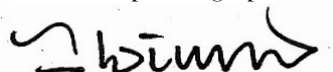

The workshop will offer complimentary food. Participants are encouraged to bring writing materials, a smartphone, a laptop, or a DSLR (Digital Single-Lens Reflex) camera if they have one. For confirmation and additional details, please contact the Chancery.

May this initiative help us become more effective and faithful stewards of the Good News in today's media landscape.

In the PEACE that binds us all,

+ JOEL Z. BAYLON, D.D.
Bishop of Legazpi
